

Code of Behaviour - Children and Young People

For children and young people attending group services at M Dagge Therapy

- Therapists, interns, residents and students on placement are treated with dignity and respect.
- The venue property both inside and out is treated with respect. Any damage to property will be brought to the attention of a member of staff or adult.
- Children will value, encourage and respect the rights of other children taking part in group therapy.
- Everyone will respect the personal space, safety and privacy of individuals.
- All participants will be sensitive to the fact that some children are more vulnerable and have special needs.
- Report cases of bullying to either the designated person, facilitator or a staff member of their choice.
- Avoid prejudice and encourage respect for difference in relation to religion, race, class, gender or ability.
- Avoid using inappropriate language and swear words.
- Respect another child's body as their own property.

I have read and agree with the above, and have discussed this document with my child who is attending, with my permission, group therapy at M Dagge Therapy.
